The Honorable Cheri Beasley
(via email to mhaxton@sc.nccourts.org)

RE: Judicial Order satisfying goal of social distancing and the bail bond industry

Chief Justice Beasley:

Thank you for the Court's recent orders promoting social distancing as we collectively fight the spread of COVID-19. In furtherance of the Court's goals, I am writing to request an order pertaining to individuals involved in the bail bond industry. Judicial intervention is necessary for the protection of bail agents, law enforcement, and society from COVID-19 and further contamination. As such, this is a humanitarian issue facing all of us.

A brief overview of the bail bonding industry is necessary to appreciate the basis for an order. When a defendant fails to appear in court, the court enters an order forfeiting the bond. After notice is given, the order becomes final within 150 days, absent a reason setting aside the order. N.C. Gen. Stat. § 15A-544.6. Accordingly, bail agents and surety companies initiate efforts to pursue, capture, and surrender defendants that have previously failed to appear in court. N.C. Gen. Stat. § 15A-544.5. If a bail agent or surety is unable to set aside the forfeiture within 150 days, the order becomes final. Even after the order of forfeiture, a bail agent may still pursue an absconding defendant in order to then file a motion to receive a refund of the money paid. N.C. Gen. Stat. § 15A-544.8.

The Court's March 19, 2020 order authorizes a bail agent or surety to file its motions by April 17, 2020. Unfortunately, the order does not eliminate the conditions precedent that must form the basis of the motions. Pursuing these conditions precedents jeopardize the health and well-being of numerous individuals.

The practical implication of the bail system is that bail agents will be in physical contact with not only defendants, but also the defendant's families and friends who may be serving as cosigners and indemnitors, confidential informants, jailers, and of course, court staff. By even attempting to locate and surrender an absconding defendant, bail agents place themselves at risk for exposure as well as their families. If a jail accepts a surrender of a defendant with symptoms, numerous other individuals are then also at risk for infection. These consequences are in contravention with the Court's and Governor Cooper's recent orders regarding social distancing.

As I write this letter, Charlotte just released their own stay-at-home letter and hospitals have recommended that Governor Cooper issue the same. Sixteen other states have issued 'stay at home' guidelines. Attached hereto are correspondence indicating that Warren, Vance, Franklin and Forsyth Counties are limiting surrenders to the jail. Despite these orders and practices, without an order to the contrary, bail agents may still legally be tasked with picking up absconding defendants if they hope to set aside the orders of forfeiture on April 17, 2020.

In order to reconcile the competing priorities, on behalf of the individuals whose support is enclosed herein, I am writing to request an order extending "other acts may be timely done in civil actions." N.C. Gen. Stat. § 7A-39(b)(1). Specifically, we request an order that allows bail agents 150 days from April 17, 2020 to set aside any pending order of forfeiture. Furthermore, we request that bail agents have an additional one year to file any motion for relief from final judgment as referenced in N.C. Gen. Stat. § 15A-544.8.

The implementation of this order should not be difficult. An entry of forfeiture is automated and can be easily reversed in VCAP. Furthermore, Clerk of Court have the ability to reissue notices of forfeiture. Accordingly, the implementation of the order would be as simple as an order allowing bail agents to exchange their existing order of forfeitures for a re-issued notice on April 17, 2020.

Thank you for the Court's consideration. If I can be of any service in discussing the matter or drafting a proposed order, please do not hesitate to contact me. My email address is brian@brianelstonlaw.com and my number is 828-575-9700.

Very Truly Yours,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Brian Elston", with a stylized flourish at the end.

I think it is fair to say that every licensed bondsman in state stands behind this, over 1800.

If the Supreme Court Justice doesn't assist us, there will be bankruptcies, foreclosures and businesses lost. This really needs to be explained.

Thanks for your efforts.

Hi Brian!

This is Dustin Smith, formerly with Accredited Surety and Casualty. Hope you are well. Andrew Kennedy who is now a co worker of mine forwarded this email to us. Crum and Forster and its family of companies are obviously in agreeance with this request. The reasons you bring up are very valid along with the issues below being brought to my attention by agents which vary by county:

Jails not allowing surrenders

Jails not wanting to serve warrants

Counties only allowing motions to be filed on the date the judgments are due

These are unprecedented times, we do ask for some reasonable leniency on these matters.

Hey Brian

In my neck of the woods, the jails in Warren, Vance and Franklin Counties are refusing to accept individuals surrendered by a bondsman. This operating procedure, per my client, is mandated by the Sheriff in each County to combat the spread of COVID-19 in their facilities. Definitely adds a new wrinkle to the issue.

Let me know if you need anything.
